THE FLORENCE ROSE B&B in Florence, Colorado offers a memorable bed and breakfast experience with a combination of antique treasures and a highly personalized level of exceptional guest services. The Rose is centrally located among many tourist attractions, making it the perfect homebase for exciting daytrips.

Located in the quaint town of Florence, Colorado, the antique capital of southeast Colorado, Florence is home to numerous antique shops and art galleries. The Florence Rose is only minutes from Canon City, home to the Royal Gorge Bridge and Park , Royal Gorge Route Railroad , numerous whitewater rafting adventure companies, world-class fly fishing opportunity, horseback riding and incredible hiking trails, as well as a local Winery offering free wine tasting daily (you may request a bottle of wine to be awaiting your arrival at "The Rose"). Climb to the top of Bishop's Castle near Lake Isabel. Also, bask in the relaxing and healing waters of the local Desert Reef Hot Springs or Dakota Hot Springs

. A masseuse is sometimes available at the Dakota Hot Springs. Call for details.

The Florence Rose Bed and Breakfast, built in 1886 has been beautifully restored and maintains its architectural integrity. All five guest rooms at "The Rose" are unique in theme and décor and combine modern-day comfort with historical ambiance. Our guest accommodations are air-conditioned and we offer free wi-fi internet access for all our guests. Read more about the Florence Rose House...

Our location at the edge of Florence Colorado in the Wet Mountains provides glorious mountain views, clean, crisp air and a quiet place to seek rest and recreation. Our charming Victorian bed and breakfast is only 8 miles east of Cañon City, 36 miles southwest of Colorado Springs and 25 miles west of Pueblo. Get a map and driving directions .

For further local information, visit the Florence Chamber of Commerce or the Canon City Chamber of Commerce
.